

Well-Being In The Preschool Policy

At Braunston Preschool CIO we understand the importance of well-being and secure, happy and valued. Promoting well-being leads to better development for children in all areas of learning including; physical, mental, social and emotional. We use our setting values to promote this and we ensure an inclusive setting for all, celebrating differences, cultures and religions so that everyone feels valued.

